

Voices from the Hive: An Ethnographic Exploration of Beekeepers' Experiences with Agrochemical Exposure and Climate fluctuations.

This study aims to develop a preliminary understanding of the characteristics of the beekeeping sector and its challenges in West Bengal. It emphasizes geographic distribution, diversity of the honeybee colonies and honey production, and other relevant factors.

The study will further investigate the impact of chemical farming and climate change on the honeybee colonies and honey production system.

